“Yes; it is the worst of it. But then I am so much accustomed to be alone. You see me in society, and in society only, and therefore naturally look upon me as one of a gregarious herd; but I am in truth an animal that feeds alone and lives alone. Take the hours of the year all through, and I am a solitary during four-fifths of them. And what do you intend to do?” Again he did not answer her at once, and when he did speak the tone of his voice was altered. “What was it you said of yourself, just now?” “No disgrace, certainly,” said Phineas. “Or keeping out of it altogether,” added Joan.
